Snake Alley

Located between Washington & Columbia Streets

Test your driving, walking or bicycling skills on what Ripley's Believe It or Not calls the "Crookedest Street in the World." Perhaps Burlington's most famous landmark, Snake Alley consists of five half-curves and two quarter-curves and drops 58 feet over a distance of 275 feet. The street is reminiscent of vineyard paths in France and Germany. There is a legend that if a horse could take the curves at a gallop and still be breathing when it reached the top, it was deemed fit to haul the city's fire wagons.
